

HER PLACE • HER POWER • HER FUTURE

Every girl deserves a future she chooses.

A safe place to dream. A bold place to lead.

Nice Place Foundation protects and empowers girls and young women through rescue and protection, education, leadership development, scholarships and community engagement.

OUR COMMITMENT

Protection today. Education and opportunity tomorrow. A future led by girls and young women.

DREAM. LEARN. LEAD.

A courageous beginning. A shared purpose.

OUR STORY

Nice Place Foundation grew from the courage of Nice Nailantei Leng'ete, a Maasai girl who resisted FGM/C and fought to remain in school. Her experience became a lifelong mission: no girl should have to choose between her body, her education and her future. Founded in 2021 and based in Loitokitok, the Foundation provides safety for girls at risk, helps vulnerable children stay in school, nurtures young women into leaders and works with communities to create lasting change.

“A girl’s story should be hers to write.”

MISSION

Protect at-risk girls, nurture their resilience and empower them to become transformational leaders through education, advocacy and practical training.

VISION

A safe space where girls are empowered to live dignified lives and shape their own futures.

WHY THE WORK MATTERS

Entrenched social norms, poverty, gender inequality and climate pressure continue to limit girls’ safety, education and opportunities in Kajiado County. Girls face FGM/C, child marriage, school dropout, teenage pregnancy and other forms of gender-based violence. The Foundation responds to immediate harm while building long-term pathways to education, leadership and agency.

74%

22%

75%

respondents saying men should have the final say

Four connected pathways. One shared future.

NPF's work is anchored in the 4R protection cycle: recognize risks through community engagement and school alerts; report to child-protection authorities and police; rescue through trauma-sensitive extraction and immediate safety; and reintegrate through family mediation, scholarships and skills training. The lesson is clear: protection without empowerment leads to fragile outcomes.

RESCUE & PROTECTION

Immediate safety, shelter, healthcare, psychosocial care and education for girls fleeing or at risk of FGM/C, forced child marriage and GBV.

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Leadership, advocacy, digital, communication and personal-development skills equip young women to find their voice and lead change.

EDUCATION & SCHOLARSHIPS

School fees, supplies and continued follow-up keep vulnerable children in primary, secondary and tertiary education.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Families, schools, elders, men and boys are engaged to challenge harmful norms and make protecting girls a shared responsibility.

BEYOND THE NUMBERS

Since its establishment, Nice Place Foundation has grown into a platform for protection, education, leadership and community transformation. Media and awareness efforts have reached more than one million people, but the difference is measured not only in numbers — it is measured in the futures that become possible.

A protected girl can remain in school. An educated girl can pursue a career. A confident young woman can influence her community.
